

O Let the Solid Ground

Michael Hicks
A. Tennyson

Slowly $\text{♩} = 60$

Soprano
Alto
Tenor
Bass
Piano (for rehearsal only)

O let the sol - id ground not fail be - neath my feet. Be - fore my

O let the sol - id ground fail be - neath my feet. Be - fore my

O let the sol - id ground not fail be - neath my feet. Be - fore my

O let the sol - id ground not fail be - neath my feet. Be - fore my

S A T
B pn.

life has found what some have found so sweet. Then let come what come may, what life has found what some have found so sweet. Then let come what come may, what life has found what some have found so sweet. Then let come what come may, what life has found what some have found so sweet. Then let come what come may, what

14

S mp p
 mat - ter if I go mad? I shall have had my day.

A mp p
 mat - ter if I go mad? I shall have had my day.

T mp p
 mat - ter if I go mad? I shall have had my day.

B mp p
 mat - ter if I go mad? I shall have had my day.

pn. mp p

19

S mp f
 Let the sweet heav'ns en - dure, not close and dark'n a - bove me Be - fore I

A mp f
 Let the sweet heav'ns en - dure, not close and dark'n a - bove me Be - fore I

T mp f
 Let the sweet heav'ns en - dure, not close and dark'n a - bove me Be - fore I

B mp f
 Let the sweet heav'ns en - dure, not close and dark'n a - bove me Be - fore I

pn. mp f

26

S mp am quite sure that there is one to love me. p Then let come what come

A mp am quite sure that there is one to love me. p Then let come what come

T mp am quite sure that there is one to love me. p Then let come what come

B mp am quite sure that there is one to love me. p Then let come what come

Pno. mp p

31

S mp may to a life that has been so sad, pp I shall have had my day.

A mp may to a life that has ben so sad, pp I shall have had my day.

T mp may to a life that has been so sad, pp I shall have had my day.

B mp may to a life that has ben so sad, pp I shall have had my day.

Pno. mp pp